

Our custom chopper frames are constructed using high■strength steel tubing engineered for durability, precision welding, and smooth handling. This guide covers geometry basics, rake and trail characteristics, and weight distribution considerations for riders of various heights. Customers can choose between classic stretch frames, low■rider builds, and performance■tuned geometries.